ARRANGE DETAILS OF MARATHON RACE

Trail From Laurel to Washington To Be Blazed Tomorrow, If Weather Permits.

LUBER'S BATHS ENGAGED

Athletes Will Find Rest in Modern Plant After Finishing Race on April 12.

With many entries coming in for the Times-News annual marathon race which will be run from Laurel to Washington on April 12 details of the big race are being carried forward and the athletes will be given every consideration, under the plans laid down for their convenience and

At the finish of the big race on April 12 the tired athletes will be taken in automobiles to the A. C. Luber & Co. Inc., turkish baths at Fifteenth and G streets, where the best of attention will be given them. It has been said that the Luber Company establishment is the finest of its kind in the country and that the athletes can have all they desire in the way of rest after the long grind.

Climbers' Chatter.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., March 26 -The more seen of "Merito" Acosts the better the lad looks, both at the and in the field.

A high wind blew all day long, great hindering the players, stirring up louds of dust and carrying batted balls in strange ways.

Tom Hughes could easily have gone the full distance against the vets in dered him to quit after going five

Joe Connolly shows ability to lay down bunts as well as hit them out. He has considerable speed, going down to first, and should make a good attempt at sticking with the team.

Tom Hughes hit a hard one down to McBride in the morning game that threatened to take off the dandy captain's foot. However. Dan came up with the pill in his glove and threw out the twirler.

Sir Robert Groom, the elongated, attenuated toothpick twirler, is suffering from a severe cold, and did not don a uniform, preferring to sit at home and read the paper. He is pulling for warm

"Zeb" Milan engaged in the batting practice in the morning, but when the game started he went to the clubhouse and dressed. He has not been feeling well for the last couple of days, and thought a rest would do him good.

Ray Morgan was used at short for the Pimientas, but Bill Morley got a chance to get into the game in the sixth inning when he supplanted Eddie Fester at third. The Knoxville lad had little to do in the field, though.

Swede and Greek Try Conclusivation of the supplanted Eddie Sions in Middleweight Match

Milan did not play against Virginia He had not improved over the morning, and so Alien Scheer was sent to the middle garden. The Youngstown middle looked pretty good, though he really did not have much to do.

to third, sliding without any fear of in-juring that patented collapsible wing.

Captain Finlay, of Virginia, looked pretty good with the bat against Joe Boehling, getting two clean hits and stealing a base. However, he fanned on his last trip to the pan, and so Boehling felt that he had evened up things.

Archer Receives Big

CHICAGO, Ill. - March 26 .- Jimmy Archer's signed contract calls for a big Will Award Prizes boost in salary, and the popular catcher has contracted for a term of four years with the Cubs. The catcher will join the team in outsville immediately. No terms were made public in the signing of the con-

Tomorrow's Sports

Nationals vs. Georgetown. Western High School vs. Brookville High School. Princeton vs. Ursinus, at Prince-

Lafayette vs. A. and M. of North Carolina, at Raleigh. Colgate vs. Manhattan at New York.

THIS ALL GOES UNDER THE HEAD OF PLEASURE

GLES AND BUNTS

The Ultimate.

I'm a pie-eyed reader of things in print; From top to bottom, before and after, I'll lamp each paragraph minus stint From politics to the latest grafter.

But while I'm soft in the hit and miss, I'm no blamed whale unto every Jonah; Each bloke has his limit, and mine is this-AN INTERVIEW WITH A BASEBALL OWNAH.

Rather a Collection.

the morning, but Manager Griffith or- ball club is strongest in each department of the game-catching, pitching, three-fourths of his worth in salary. infielding and outfielding.

> The query, being a simple one, assumes no complexity in the way of reply-as, for example-to-wit and viz.: Catchers-Chicago-Archer and Bresnahan.

Pitchers-Pittsburgh-Hendrix, Adams, Camnitz, O'Toole, Robinson. Infield-Philadelphia-Melnnes, Collins, Barry, Baker. Outfield-Boston-Speaker, Lewis, Hooper.

If there was any argument here it would be in regard to the pitching any better than Tesreau, Mathewson, Marquard, Demarce, etc.; or any bet-| safest and easiest guess of the era. ter than the Phillies, with Alexander, Rixey, Seaton etc. But for even balance across the complete staff Clarke seems to carry the fringe of a shade-enough to obtain the faint edge of argument.

even a whisper that one might raise.

Paging Mr. Ritchie.

Isn't it about time that our old Heidelberg and Oxford chum, the Hon. Willie Ritchie, was responding to the faint whisper for another fight? Catholic Univ. Makes Nine Runs If speed and curves alone framed the essence of great pitching, there's Willie is one of our nicest young pize fighters—an unassuming young many a Jane in the hurly-burly who could make Walter Johnson or Joe gentleman of suave manners and subtle politeness; but Willie, for all that, has done less to become a champion and defend his championship than any other member of the fistic trail.

Grantland Rice

Willie reached the top through the other fellow's punch; and now he is can't see it drift by? A blind swing is as likely to smash an upshoot as maintaining the top by keeping well out of reach of the other fellow's

Pop Naughton has sounded the warning from the other coast, where he announces that Ritchie's friends are curling up and dropping away like rose leaves under the frost Ritchie must either meet a good man at an early date or stand branded. for all his gentlemanly and suave bearing, as the prize cheese of the ring. There is grave doubt among many as to whether or not Ritchie could travel the full distance at a faster clip than Joe Rivers; or just how well he would fare in another battle with Ad Wolgast. It's about time that Willie was rising from his velvet couch of ease and furnishing proof as to his right of ownership.

The Market Value.

As these burning dispatches are being pushed to press, Ty Cobb has Black legged players to take a fall out of the Yale team. failed to sign up with Detroit.

Cobb, as the athlete who excels in more departments than any other ers yesterday just as the others have layer, is certainly entitled to his $12,000 demand. As he is worth in cold, pallid figures over $20,000 a year to the Tiger K. L. H. arises to a point of opinion. He writes in to know just what club, there's no reason why he shouldn't get three-fifths of his worth or

> There must be a limit in salaries, but the star performers of one of the greatest amusement enterprises ever framed are entitled to quite a bit of change. It's easy enough to plug up the gap made vacant by the average player. An average salary is all he can loo for. But the citizen who can produce well above the average field is entitled to his share of the production.

If Jim Thorpe's speed, athletic knack and intuition plus McGraw's selection. There might be a question as to whether the Pirate corps is coaching doesn't make a regular ball plyer within a year we miss the

It might be just as well to lamp this Pirate-Red Sox series closely to gather in a few stray strands of dope. It isn't any wall-eyed cinch that As to the rest of it there isn't any debate to be staged. There isn't they won't meet head-on about six months from now with considerably more at stake.

C. U. MEETS YALE AT BROOKLAND TODAY

in Last Part of Game, Overcoming Big Lead.

"Chief" Greene will be selected to oppose Yale today in the event that a game can be played at Brookland. The Catholic University team is placing conidence in the veteran pitcher and hopes

Frank Quinby, the Yale coach, is minus four of his best players today. naving sent Pendleton, Brown, Gile, and Ripley back to New Haven for their failure to strictly observe training rules laid down while on the trip.

Coach Moran, whose charges have yet to lose a game, is confident that Yale can be defeated as easily as the others, and is ready with his Red and

Holy Cross fell before the Brooklandthis season, and while the margin of was slight, 9 to 8 tu tide the Brooklanders' way, Moran is confident of repeating. The game was one of the freakiest played at Brookland, and for awhile it resembled a rout, as Holy Cross totaled eight in the second inning, while Moran's team falled to far anything loose until the sixth session. Then three runs were chased across and the batting lamps were later found, Pipp, Horan. Lynch, and Hayes getting busy with the stick.

Five runs were made in the eighth inning, while the ninth was productive of the ninth and winning run for the Brooklanders. In all sixteen hits were registered by Catholic University. The score: R.H.E. Catholic Uni.... 000003051-9 16 1 Holy Cross..... 08000000-8 9 2

Mt. St. Joseph's No

BALTIMORE, March 26.-Mt. St. Joseph's College put up the poorest exhibition of baseball yesterday afternoon that has been seen on the Irvington Blue and Gray Forced to 18- campus for some years and threw the first home game to Maryland Aggles,

Mt. St. Joseph's was away off form, and the whole team seemed to be in a nightmare. The batteries worked well enough to win, but they received miserable support. The Josephites' infield. that has been famous for its speed. slowed up almost to a standstill, and Yates started to pitch for Mt. St. sette was then called to the rescue. He had the Farmers on his wagon, bu-loosened up when he realized that the

was nervous at first, but during his

Loomis did good work for the Farm Shipley was the star for he tagged his runners with noteworthy precision and was the star with the willow. McBride took off the laurels for Mt. St. Joseph's.

Practice Games

Regulars, 0; Pimientas, 10. Giants, 6; Beaumont, 0. Other Games.

C. U., 9; Holy Cross, 9. Gallaudet, 9; Tech, 3. Pennsylvania, 10: Johns Honkins 4. Md. Aggles, 11; Mt. St. Josephs, 4. A. and N. Preps, 20, Emerson, 2.

MEN, They're All Admitting MASCOT Did the Trick!

FOR five thousand years men put the thread through the wrong end of the needle. Then a man named Howe came along, saw the error of it—and invented the sewing-machine.

Since smoking tobacco first became a staple commodity, men have been putting up their best grades in a tin box-just to make it look different. They charged you for that tin box -and in order to get the best tobacco you had to buy that tin box.

I came along and said — "Folks can't smoke tin, and they don't want to pay for tin — BUT, they want the best tobacco.

So I really took the very best tobacco, did away with the tin box, and used an economical, serviceable cloth pouch instead

MASCUT CRUSHED CUT TOBACCO

There was never one like it—for pipe and cigarette

That economical Men. I know tomoney and it gives co for five cents.

Here's what MASCOT is—

The very cleanest, carefully-cured mild old Burley leaf—the best that Kentucky grows, aged until it is mellow and sweet and fragrant; then sliced, re-sliced, rolled and crushed until all the tobacco runs uniformly through every bit of it and none of it "smokes in streaks."

pouch has saved bacco. You can't buy any better tobacyou a ten cent tobac- co than MASCOT. You can pay more money; Yes. You can spend it for tin cans that will eventually go onto the ash-heap course of a billy-goat's banquet. But you can't smoke

> I'm giving you tobacco_real tobacco. For five cents I'm giving you smoking tobacco today for which you paid a dime last week.

In Pouch 5c-In Tins it would cost you double

JESS HANSEN TO WRESTLE KILONIS

Tonight at Gayety.

Jess Hansen, the Swedish middle-Daredevil Dan Moeller, without Fos-er to send him around, tore loose on his own account and stole three bases. Twice he galloped to second and once at the Gayety Theater tonight, arrived but is quite the right move. career on the mat. Hansen's activities have been principally in the vicinity ised that he will be given that chance, provided he defeats some of those athetes whom Turner has disposed of. Boost in Signing Kilonis has been working in Washington for more than a month now, and in that time has been a principal in some of the best matches of the year.

Washington Y. M. C. A. following the last of the series of weekly indoor sports at the association gymnasium.
The 220-yard dash, standing broad and standing high jumps will be a part of the program tonight.
The ten high men enter the final con-

The ten high men enter the final contest of the series this evening with the following number of points to their credit, respectively: Thompson, 2,36.8; E. Schuler, 1,284.7; Elder, 11,721.2; Linden, 1,720.7; Powell, 1,678.3; Lassley, 1,635.2; Johnson, 1,581.5; Ball, 1,469; Ashley, 1,219.2; Kluge, 1,215.2. The teams into which the athletes are divided stand as follows: Team three (Lassley, captain), 6,635.2; team two (Mansfield, captain), 6,531.7; team one (Linden, captain), 6,477.8; team four (Schuler, captain), 6,477.8;

BOB THAYER'S SPORTING GOSSIP

"EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST."-

Yale players get a taste of what dis tipline is now that four members have been shipped back to New Haven, conference and sent Gile and Brown, the star pitchers, with Pendleton and Ripley home when they disobeyed injunc- port this year, tions at Norfolk. This takes the real weight wrestler who meets John Kilonis strength from the Yale pitching staff,

Coming home today.

Players punished.

Griff and his children are coming homoday after the training season and will open here for a series of exhibition games. We will all be glad to see them and learn all about them from a closer viewpoint. All o fthe new ones and old ones of the family will be carefully looked over by all the fans. Acosta and Calvo should make a big hit here as they have been heard from in every way

G. U. walloped.

It is impossible to pull the "I told you so" stuff on the Blue and Gray team today and the answer will rest for a an event in itself. Rest assured that couple of games more until it can be At Y. M. C. A. Tonight Seen just what the matter is, On paper Georgetown stacks up as well as any other college team in the country but Prizes will be awarded tonight at the it will be quite a spell before that is to score can be lived down.

Western not slow.

I am-glad to see that Western is not slow in following up the advantage gained in the indoor track meets and Princeton, with White, Sterrett, and that the West Enders are putting forth every effort to get the boys in shape others are correspondingly sufferers. Emerson Institute for the outdoor track meet. Western has the best chance in years to land the title in track and is due to come forward with a rush all along the line The baseball team, too, looks better than any other high school team.

The Aggies meet. The track meet held by the Maryland the E street A. C. by 10 to 5.

Aggies during the last two years is go ing to be repeated and is likely to be another success. As entertainers the Maryland Agricultural College faculty and students have always endeared Coach Quinby, Captain Blossom, and themselves to those who have been for-Coach Tommers got together after a tunate enough to go out there to athletic events. Washington schools and colleges should give them earnest sup-

Entries coming in.

Washington will probably not have the representation in the Times-News race this year that it has in former years, but the runners will be of a high class and are certain to give a good account of themselves. The stars are holding out for awhile, but a batch of speedy men are to turn in their entries next week.

Two weeks more.

day Frank Chance and his Highlanders on. Incidentally Chance is making his American League debut, which is quite the Climbers will make him sit up and take notice from the clang of the gong. Not so strong.

After looking over the college teams that have played here this spring and taking into consideration that it is a hit early in the season, it must be said that the teams as a whole do not frame up to the strength of last year. by graduation.

Andrews Win.

On the Monument grounds yesterday evening, the Andrew Juniors defeated

GEORGETOWN TAKES AN AWFUL BEATING

to-1 Defeat at Hands of Yale University Team.

No one talks baseball at Georgetown oday, no one mentins Princeton, and there is no chatter about Yale, for the Blue and Gray is attempting to live home team. down the 18 to 1 defeat handed out by Coach Quinby's New Haven players. Certain it is that but once before, and that time against Fordham, has Georgetown put up such a miserable exhibition against a team on its home ground. Fielding, pitching, batting, and in fact every department of the Blue and Gray easeball team, was made to look amaeurish when compared to Yale's slash-ng play yesterday. Yale, on the other hand, took advan-

Just think of it? Two weeks from today Frank Chance and his Highlanders are going to make a bow at the concrete coliseum, and the season of 1913 will be on. Incidentally Chance is making his likely to do this season likely to do this season. Burdette led Yale in batting, with four safeties. Cornish, Reilly, Riddle, and Blossom got two hits each, and batting averages were fattened with a will. The Yale team got together in the last round and put eight more runs across. Lawlor's work for Georgetown was a shining light when compared with the performances of the others.

The score: Batteries-Scott and Burdette; Lynch, Feinle, Heffernan, Mullaney and Law-

Loses to Prep Nine

Twenty to two is the score of the opening game between Emerson Institute and Army and Navy Preps. The pitching of Hoatson and Von Schenk was too much for the losers.

Batteries-Ryan, Trayers, and McDon-nell; Cunningnam, McMahon, and Car-Match For Farmers

the Aggies had no trouble with the Joseph's and was going along nicely until Poe and Bill Boyle lost themselves on slow grounders. Then, with full bases, Hunterman shot one away for two bags that swept the paths. Morri-team was going badly.

Seeing that the game was gone, Cap-tain Wainsley called out Morrisette to save him for Holy Cross Thursday. Lefty Sheppard, the young left hands from the preps, succeeded Morrisett and pitched creditable ball. Sheppar Phillies, 9; Raleigh, 1. Yankees, 9; Jersey city, 1.

Yale, 18; Georgetown, 1.

